GOLD DEMOCRATS MEET.

National Convention of the "National Democratic Party" in Indianapolis.

THE DELEGATES NUMBERED 824.

Forty-three States and Three Territories Represented—Ex-Governor Flower, of New York, Presided Temporarily, and Senator Caffery, of Louisiana, Was Appointed the Permanent Chairman.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 3.—Forty-three States and three Territories, represented by delegates, met yesterday in Tomlinson Hall, the auditorium of a six weeks' campaign of the Gold Democrats, to repudiate the platform of the Chicago Convention and make a declaration of principles and nominate a national ticket.

The hall was confined strictly to delegates, but every seat in the space reserved for the delegates and alternates, and the galleries were filled without being crowded. The platform, reserved for the party's distinguished guests, were occupied by a most brilliant and lavish display of flags and buntings, and potted flowers, but the most noticeable feature was the prevalence of the gold symbol of the spirit of the convention. Gold wreaths were everywhere in the decorations, and half the delegates wore sprays of golden rod in the lapels of their coats.

There was an unusually large number of women in the galleries and in the chairs back of the stage, their bright gowns and hats lending a general effect of the scene. Most of them were from a distance, but some of the most prominent women of Indianapolis were present.

Among the delegates present were a number who had also been delegates at the Chicago Convention. The big New York delegation of seventy-two members perhaps attracted the most attention. In it were: Ex-Governor Flower, the Temporary Chairman of the convention; ex-Secretary Fairchild, ex-Congressman Tracey, John R. Fellows and Perry Belmont.

When Senator Palmer rapped with his gavel the convention to order, delegates and galleries joined in a series of rounds of applause and cheers. Senator Palmer introduced Bishop White, of this diocese, who opened the proceedings with prayer.

The call for the convention was then read. When the name of Cleveland was read in the call, in connection with the names of Jefferson and Jackson, the members of the convention broke and cheered and applauded, standing, waving hats, hands and handkerchiefs. During the reading of the call the Chicago Marching Club entered one of the galleries and was received with cheers. Ex-Governor Flower was made Temporary Chairman, and read a very long address, which was frequently cheered. After recess, taken when Mr. Flower concluded, the Committee on Credentials reported that there were 824 delegates in the convention, representing forty-three States and three Territories.

In connection with reference to the delegates-at-large, the committee reported that the action of the National Committee in ordering the delegates returned to stay until they be confirmed. The report was agreed to without opposition.

Dr. William Everett, of Massachusetts, then made an address which was received with many interruptions, the audience cheering wildly when Cleveland's name was mentioned by the speaker.

The committee on Organization next reported, and recommended Senator Donelson, of Indiana, as Permanent Chairman, and J. R. Wilson, of Indiana, for Permanent Secretary, and further recommended the appointment of a permanent National Committee. The report was adopted without debate, and Senator Caffery, of Louisiana, escorted the new chairman, Senator John P. Irish, of California, to the platform, and then, as the Committee on Platform was not ready to report, the convention adjourned for the day.

NUTMEG REPUBLICANS.

State Convention of the Party Held at Hartford.

Lieutenant-Governor Lorrin A. Cooke, of Windham, was nominated for Governor, of course, and other State officers were named by the Republican State Convention at Hartford yesterday. McKinley and Hobart were enthusiastically indorsed and a sound money platform adopted.

The ticket nominated is as follows:

Governor—James D. Dewell, of Middletown.
Secretary of State—Charles Phelps Beck, of Bridgeport.
State Treasurer—C. W. Grosvenor, of Pomfret.
State Comptroller—Benjamin M. Mead, of Southington.
Presidential Electors-at-Large—Nominated.

3,000 Pounds of Powder Let Go.

Three thousand pounds of giant powder were fired at the Equitable Powder Mills, Alton, Ill. Thomas Reff, Henry Ragus and William Rodgers were killed.

New Hampshire Democratic Convention.

The New Hampshire Democrats, in State Convention at Concord, nominated Colonel Henry Bent, of Lancaster, for Governor, and indorsed the Chicago platform. An electoral ticket was also named. A resolution indorsing President Cleveland's Administration was adopted. After a sharp debate Barry Bingham announced the withdrawal of the sound money men from the convention, and they left the hall.

An Old Collection.

One hundred pounds for each of her birthdays is the odd collection which a young woman of Hiawatha, Kas., owns.

Prominent People.

On the 23d of September Queen Victoria will celebrate the longest recorded reign of an English monarch.

It is said that Arthur Sewall, the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, has the best vegetable garden in Maine.

Mr. Dwight L. Moody will largely withdraw from usual evangelistic work and devote himself to furnishing the 750,000 prisoners in the United States with good literature, chiefly religious.

Dr. Jameson is improving his time whilst in durance vile by writing a book about the recent Transvaal raid. He will have plenty of spare time on his hands for the next twelve months or so.

CLEVELAND AND LI.

China's Viceroy Meets the President in New York.

Li Hung Chang, as the special Envoy of the Emperor of China, has presented his credentials to the President of the United States, and a communication from his imperial master, the contents of which were not made public. This meeting and the presentation took place in the ball room of the New York residence of ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, in the presence of General Ruger, of the United States Army; Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle, Secretary of War Daniel Lamont, Senator Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland; Dr. Bryant, Secretary of State Olney, Private Secretary Thurber, John Russell Young and five members of the Viceroy's suite. President Cleveland came on in a yacht from his summer home in Buzzard's Bay, and returned shortly after the presentation ceremonies were over.

Li, who was resplendant in his robes of state, including the famous yellow jacket and the the three-eyed peacock feather in his hat, made a short speech to Mr. Cleveland. The President replied with an address of welcome. Then Li presented his credentials addressed to the President and signed by the Emperor of China. They were handed over to Assistant Secretary Rockhill to be filed in the State Department.

On his return to his hotel Li met Mayor Strong, ex-Senator Warner Miller and others. With the Mayor he had a long talk. He asked Mr. Strong what his salary was and all about himself and about the municipal affairs in his keeping.

In the evening the great Chinaman was the guest at a banquet of former residents of China. An address of welcome was read to him and he made a short speech in reply.

On Sunday Li drove to General Grant's tomb in Riverside Drive and placed a wreath upon it. Then he took tea with Colonel Frederick D. Grant and met Mrs. Grant, widow of the General. He made presents of choice silks, teas and other articles to the members of the Grant family and accepted several tributes of esteem in return.

On the following day Li boarded the United States dispatch boat Dolphin and went up the Hudson to West Point.

PUT DOWN BY FEDERAL TROOPS.

A Fatal Uprising in the Seminole Natio. Suppressed.

News from the Seminole Nation in Kansas says an uprising among the "squaw men" has been partially subdued by the arrival of troops from the First Cavalry. Two hours before the arrival of the military the "squaw men" and full-bloods had a pitched battle, in which three full-blood Indians were killed and two "squaw men" injured. One hundred and fifty "squaw men" comprised the attacking party, and chased 300 full-bloods and half-breeds through the streets.

The trouble between the "squaw men," or white men who have married into the Seminole tribe, has been in progress several weeks, or since the last meeting of the Seminole Council, when a law was passed ordering the immediate expulsion of all white men from the nation. For several years it has been the practice of white men to go into the Seminole country and marry squaws. This, according to Seminole laws, entitled them to sixty acres of land. The white men have selected the choicest bits of land, and have frozen out the full-bloods and half-breeds. Hence the law of the Council and the subsequent trouble. An effort of full-blood Indian police to put into force the decision of the Council, led to the revolt, which has been in progress ten days. The presence of Federal troops will probably prevent further trouble.

RIOTERS BURST BOMBS.

Many Killed in Constantinople and a Bank Attacked.

A great many persons have been killed in the riots at Constantinople, Turkey. The official account attributes the riots to an organized effort of the Central Committee of the Armenian revolutionists to stir up a revolt.

The disturbers suddenly entered the great hall of the Ottoman Bank in small groups, armed with revolvers, daggers and dynamite bombs. An officer of the guard demanded to know their business. Without reply they blew out his brains, then killed and beheaded the gendarmes, throwing the heads into the street.

Then they closed the bank doors and threw bombs into the street. Four Turkish women driving by in a carriage were blown to pieces by one bomb. Two French employes of the bank, while descending from a window by a rope, were wounded by an explosion.

The rioters also captured a hotel, and bombs, bullets and other missiles rained down upon the heads of passers-by, wounding many.

FLYING MACHINE A SUCCESS.

Professor Lamson's Invention Sails Through the Air at Old Orchard, Me.

Charles H. Lamson, who has been experimenting for some time at Portland, Me., on kites and aerial ships, succeeded in floating what is said to be the largest airship ever sent independently into the air, and in carrying, by this means, what is said to be the greatest weight to the highest altitude on record. The kite, when in the air, resembles two large oblong boxes parallel to each other and attached to each other in the middle. It took fifteen men to carry the kite or ship into the field from which it was to be sent up. The retaining cord was a large braided window cord tested to a pull of 500 pounds. This was made fast to a huge reel and four men attended to it. About 400 feet of the rope was run out along the ground, and at a signal from Mr. Lamson the ship was released. It quivered a moment and then steadily rose skyward to an altitude of 600 feet, then the cord broke and the ship settled slowly down. The airship carried a dummy weighing 150 pounds.

MONTHS WITHOUT FOOD

The Peculiar Disease of an Aged Man Puzzles Physicians.

A great deal of interest is being caused a Nanticoke, Penn., by the peculiar condition of Stephen Douglass, aged seventy-six, who for the last four months and two weeks has eaten nothing nor taken anything to drink except a little water. The old man, who has neither home nor relatives, boards at the house of L. Mecnalowski.

Most of the time he can neither hear, see nor talk, and the presence of persons in his room talking about his case and examining him has no effect upon him. Physicians who have examined him are mystified, and have not yet reached any conclusion on his case. They have tried to force milk and whisky and beef tea down his throat, but he has refused to swallow them. He has grown so thin that he is now merely skin and bones, and at last accounts it was not thought he would survive much longer.

An Iowa Institution Destroyed.

Lightning set fire to the main building of the Iowa State Institution for the Feeble Minded at Glenwood, and it was destroyed, entailing a loss upon the State of $150,000. The inmates were removed in safety and other buildings saved.

Forgers Sentenced for Life.

Carl Becker and James Crogan, the well-known forgers, convicted of complicity in the Nevada Bank swindle of $20,000, were each sentenced by Judge Wallace at San Francisco to imprisonment for life.

Skirmishes in Cuba.

According to official reports no battles of importance have been fought recently between the Cuban insurgents and the Government troops. There have, however, been a number of skirmishes in different places. In these engagements the insurgent losses amounted to fifty killed and three wounded while the Spanish lost four killed and thirty-five wounded.

Blew Out His Brains.

Henry M. Cowan, clerk at Democratic State Headquarters, at Raleigh, N. C., committed suicide by blowing out his brains. He was for eight years chief clerk of the North Carolina State Treasury, and was a

FIRST STATE ELECTION.

Vermont Goes Republican by the Largest Majority in Its History.

The Green Mountain State has declared for Josiah Grout, Republican for Governor, and for the Republican State ticket entire, by a plurality unparalelled in the history of Vermont politics.

Chairman Merritt, of the Republican State Committee, issued a final bulletin at midnight on election day for 230 out of 245 towns, giving a Republican majority of 37,824.

The remaining towns in 1894 gave a Republican majority of 1181, and with this majority added Merritt figures a majority of 39,000 for the head of the ticket.

The weather generally was cool and fair throughout the State, and hundreds of Republicans voted who have not been at the polls for years. Practically the full Republican vote was cast. On the other hand, the lack of organization in the Democratic ranks was very apparent.

The whole Republican State ticket is elected, and both Congressmen H. Henry Powers, of Morristown, and William G. Grout, a brother of the successful candidate for Governor, are returned to Washington. Both branches of the Legislature are also overwhelmingly Republican.

In the September election of 1892 the Republican plurality was 19,604.

ARTIST REINHART DEAD.

One of the Most Eminent of American Illustrators Passes Away.

Charles Stanley Reinhart, the well-known American artist and illustrator, died a few days ago at the Players' Club in New York after a short illness.

Mr. Reinhart ranked with Henry E. Abbey, and others of the most eminent American illustrators. He was born fifty-two years ago in Pittsburgh, and for three years during the Civil War was engaged on the United States railroads in Virginia. After the close of the war he was employed in a steel manufactory in Pittsburg, and only in 1868 began the serious study of art. He went first to Paris and then to Munich. After completing his studies abroad he returned to New York City, and there the greater part of his life had been spent.

Mr. Reinhart was employed first by the Harpers, and some of the last work he did was in illustration of these publications. He made illustrations for other firms and frequently exhibited oil and water color paintings at the National Academy of Design. In 1892 several of his paintings were exhibited at the World's Fair, and one of these, "Cast Ashore," had previously gained a second prize at the Salon exhibition in Paris.

Mr. Reinhart had long been appreciated as one of the best and most truly artistic of American illustrators, and his work has gained a high reputation. He was a widower, his wife having died eleven years ago in Paris, and three children, one son and two daughters, survive him.

LI HUNG CHANG KEPT BUSY.

A Variety of Experiences for the Great Chinaman in New York.

Li Hung Chang, the Chinese Ambassador, had some varied and interesting experiences the other day in New York. In the morning he received a number of callers and gave audience to representatives of various missionary societies. An address was presented to him, and his reply testified to the good work accomplished by American missionaries in China, especially in the way of suppressing the opium habit, the curse of the native population. He also referred gracefully to the prayers of the missionaries for him when he was stricken by an assassin in Japan. About 1 o'clock, the Viceroy, escorted by soldiers, went to the Merchants' Club, down town, where he was entertained at luncheon. His response indicated the pleasure he felt over the warmth of his reception in the United States. Afterward he was driven through Chinatown, where the inhabitants made a unique demonstration by exploding great bundles of firecrackers in their eminent countryman's honor. From there Li proceeded to Union Square and reviewed the Police, Fire and Street Cleaning Departments. In the evening a dinner in his honor was given at Delmonico's by the Chinese Consul and Chinese merchants, but the Ambassador was not present owing to a slight injury.

While entering his carriage after the Merchants' Club entertainment the Viceroy had his finger caught in the jamb of the door, but the injury was not serious.

EXTERMINATING THE SEALS.

Only a Few of Their Former Numbers on the Pribylov Islands.

Advices has been received from the United States Government Commission appointed to investigate the seal fisheries in northern waters. Dr. David Starr Jordon, who is at the head of the American Commission, says that the herds have diminished to an insignificant fraction of their former proportions. The North American Commercial Company will be unable to secure more than 15,000 skins from the herds on the Pribylov Islands this season.

The United States steamer Albatross, having the members of the Commission on board, is now cruising off the coast of Japan in company with a Japanese gunboat.

Found $4000 in a Tea Kettle.

A valuable find of money is reported twelve miles northeast of Moberly, Mo. The finder is Patrick Henry, who was moving from Springfield, Ill., to Kansas. While in camp and cutting a stick of wood his ax slipped and struck something in the ground, which proved to be an old tea kettle containing $4000 in gold. The dates on the coins are prior to 1860.

Pulled Overboard by a Bluefish.

Martin Guthe, of Evergreen, Long Island, while trolling for bluefish on the Great South Bay, hooked a twelve-pound bluefish, which pulled him overboard. If his comrades had not been quick to go to his rescue he would have been drowned. They got him out and helped him pull the fish into the boat.

A Hunter Kills His Friend.

Aaron W. Anderson, Jr., and David Morgan went gunning for reed birds near Collingswood, N. J., when Anderson's gun was accidentally discharged and the charge blew off the top of Morgan's head. Morgan died almost instantly.

The National Game.

Lajoie, Geier and Gallagher, Philadelphia's new players, are giving entire satisfaction.

Captain Tebeau still believes that Cleveland will be in the Temple Cup series. He also adds that the Baltimore team is the best ever gotten together.

The Boston Club paid $1200 for Pitcher Klobedanz, of Fall River. He won twenty-five out of the last twenty-nine games pitched in the New England League.

Curt Welch died at his home, East Liverpool, Ohio, a few days ago, at the age of thirty-four. In his day Welch was the finest outfielder in the country, possessing marvellous judgment on fly balls and pitched tricky at the bat.

TO MAKE TURKEY SETTLE.

An American Fleet Ordered to the Vicinity of Constantinople.

The United States cruiser Cincinnati has been ordered to Constantinople. This action, it is well understood in Washington official circles, is for the double purpose of making an imposing display of force if President Cleveland should deem it necessary, and to relieve the Marblehead when Turkish affairs resume their normal condition.

UNITED STATES CRUISER CINCINNATI.
(Ordered to Constantinople to help protect American interests.)

Although the Navy Department has had this step in contemplation for some time it has created something of a sensation, coming immediately after the hasty fitting out of the miniature warship Bancroft.

The Cincinnati is a cruiser of 3213 tons, carries something like 390 men, is well equipped with rapid-fire guns and is especially adapted to active work in the Bosphorus. She is now with Admiral Bunce's fleet off the North Atlantic coast, and will reach the Dardanelles in the latter part of October, about the time the American warship Bancroft reaches Constantinople. The San Francisco, now at Alexandria, and the Marblehead, at Genoa, will meet the Cincinnati at Smyrna.

The fact that these vessels are to rendezvous at Smyrna and go as a fleet to the Dardanelles gives rise to the impression that Minister Terrell will only await their arrival to make such demands upon the Turkish Government as may result in his immediate withdrawal from the city to take refuge upon warships sent to protect him.

Delay in paying American missionaries in Armenia for property destroyed by the Sultan's soldiers during the massacres, failure to keep promises and an apparent disinclination recently to adjust the matter at all, have made the State Department impatient, and it is known to be the fixed determination of both the President and Secretary Olney to exact payment in full for damages sustained by citizens of the United States.

NEW YORK GOLD DEMOCRATS

State Convention in Syracuse---Two Electors-at-Large Named.

The Sound Money Democrats of New York held their State Convention in Syracuse. Daniel G. Griffin and Charles S. Fairchild were the presiding officers. Delegates to the Indianapolis Convention were elected, and two candidates for Presidential Electors-at-Large were nominated.

The Delegates-at-Large selected were: Ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower, Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn; ex-Congressman Charles Tracey, of Albany, and George A. Magee, of Watkins.

The nominees for Presidental Electors-at-Large were ex-Judge Robert Earl, of Herkimer, and Oswald Ottendorfer, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung.

A platform was adopted repudiating the action of the Chicago Convention, declaring for a gold standard and a tariff for revenue only, upholding Cleveland's administration and favoring the nomination of a third ticket. The convention adjourned to meet again in Brooklyn on September 24, or later, to complete the electoral ticket and decide whether or not a State ticket should be put in the field.

CYCLIST CIRCLES THE GLOBE.

Remarkable Exploit of John J. Brough of Connecticut.

A bicycle trip round the world has just been made by John J. Brough, of Manchester, Conn. He was gone a year and traveled 12,000 miles on his wheel. He sailed from New York August 17, 1895, with a companion, who a short distance from Queenstown, Ireland, where they landed, fell from his bicycle and fractured his arm. Mr. Brough proceeded alone. He visited Scotland, North and South Wales, and many places in England. From London he went by water to Dieppe in France, then wheeling to Holland and Germany. In Frankfort he won a fifty-mile bicycle race, and with it a prize of $100. In Italy he rode his wheel from Rome to Naples. At Constantinople he was in prison for three nights and two days for being found without a passport. Later he went to Sicily. From Sicily he went to Egypt, to Arabia, and thence via Bombay to Calcutta. From the latter city he made a journey to the Straits Settlement, then to Rangoon, to Burmah, and on to China. From China he went to Japan and Yokohama, sailing from that Japanese port, he reached San Francisco and returned home by wheel.

And Began His Campaign in McKinley's State at Cleveland.

Candidate Bryan made his last address in New York at Ripley, and then entered Ohio, winding up a laborious day of traveling, speechmaking and handshaking by addressing three great meetings in Cleveland. This brought the number of speeches made by Mr. Bryan since the beginning of the campaign up to eighty-eight, not including brief non-political addresses.

At Central Armory, Cleveland, 6000 persons were gathered to hear Bryan. At the close of the meeting he was driven to Music Hall, where the audience numbered 3500. A stand was erected in the street in front of the hall for the benefit of those who were unable to gain admission, and from this Bryan spoke to a crowd which packed the brand thoroughfare from curb to curb. All the meetings were enthusiastic and Bryan was loudly cheered as he drove from his hotel to the armory.

THIEVES FOLLOW MR. BRYAN.

Steal $950 Bank Cash While Clerks Look at the Procession.

Robbers entered the Ripley (N. Y.) branch of the Westfield Bank in broad daylight and secured $950. Nearly everybody in Ripley had gone to listen to W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, the cashier of the bank being among his auditors. A bookkeeper had been left in charge. He heard loud talking outside, and went to the street door. There he got into a heated argument with a stranger. While the bookkeeper was thus engaged the robbers came up through the cellar into the banking room and made away with the day's deposits. They entered unobserved and left unobserved.

SWEAR BY SILVER.

Trenton's Gold Democrats Must Take Oath to Support Bryan and Sewall.

The Democratic City Committee of Trenton, N. J., which is controlled by the silver men, adopted a resolution providing the gold Democrats must take an oath to support Bryan and Sewall before being permitted to elect delegates to the State Convention, called for the purpose of nominating Presidential electors.

The members of the City Committee are judges of the primary elections and have the power to carry out the provisions of the resolutions adopted.

President Cowen Injured While Bicycling.

BLUE PILLS CURE.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTORING NOT SAFE IN PRACTICE.

Practitioners Who Prescribe Poisonous Treatment—Different Elixirs From the Same Deadly Drugs—Quack, Quack Won't Buy Bread.

There was a certain quack doctor in the late war, of whom it is said that he knew how neither to diagnose a patient's case correctly, nor to prescribe the necessary remedy for the proper treatment of the same. When he supposed a patient to be afflicted with a fever he gave him blue pills, when he supposed another to have the smallpox he gave him blue pills, or if he found another suffering with the tooth-ache his great cure-all was blue pills. In a word, whatever might be the disease, he had but one remedy for it, viz., blue pills. By this unskilled method of giving the wrong medicine, instead of curing his patients, he killed many of them, and thus became unpopular and was compelled to go out of the business.

So it is with our free traders who furnish us a parallel case with that of the quack doctor, in which they are the quacks and our country is the patient. They have but one remedy for all countries and for all diseases of the country. It is immaterial to them whether a country is large or small; whether its climate is wet or dry, warm, cold or temperate; whether its pursuits are agricultural, manufacturing, commercial, mining, grazing or whatever they may be; they have but one remedy, viz., free trade.

Soon after the last Presidential election, when it was learned that all three branches of our National Government had gone Democratic, the fear of free trade originated our present panic, which is continued by the reality of the same economic system. The quacks first said it was caused by the Sherman law. So the Republicans helped the Democrats to repeal this compromise law; but the quacks found that times got no better. They next said it was the McKinley bill, so they gave us the Wilson free trade bill instead, and find that times are still worse. Thus, they have been treating their patient for more than three years, with no improvement whatever. It has been waiting patiently for the quacks' time to expire so as to again employ its old reliable physicians (the Republicans), who always kept it in a healthful and flourishing condition.

But the major part of the quacks, seeing that they are about to lose their patient by unsuccessful treatment on blue pill free trade now propose to add to this obnoxious prescription the poisonous drug of silver inflation. They hope thereby to obtain the treatment of the case for four years longer; but, unfortunately for the prescriber, their patient tried this last ingredient from 1792 to 1873, a period of eighty-one years, and in that time experienced three severe panics whose respective dates are as follows: 1817-1824, 1832-1842, 1857-1861, during which three periods we had both free trade and free silver. Now, if free silver is a remedy for panics and a preventative from their occurrence why did we have three of them under the free and unlimited coinage of silver? Again, if free silver is a preventative from the occurrence of panics why did we have the severest one that ever afflicted our great Nation, under the compromise bill, known as the "Sherman Law," which authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to purchased 4,500,000 ounces of silver each month, which was a long step toward free silver.

The fact is that it was free trade that caused all these panics, and the cause must be removed before a cure can be brought about. The free and unlimited coinage of silver would be a boon to the rich bankers and millionaires, for they could purchase silver bullion in the markets of the world at the rate of about fifty-three cents for every 371¼ grains (the amount of silver in a dollar), have it coined into silver dollars and thus clear about $47 on the $100, or realize a profit of about forty-seven per cent. on their investment. At the same time the purchasing power of the silver dollar would diminish and thus make the condition of the poor laboring man still harder than free trade already made it.

So it is very evident, indeed, that the free trade inflationists know but little about diagnosing their patient's case, and much less about prescribing the proper remedy to bring about its speedy convalescence. Therefore, in the words of Abraham Lincoln, we would say: "You can fool a part of the people all the time, and you can fool all the people a part of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time;" and further, that our free traders fooled us once, but that they cannot do so again, even under the guise of Popocrats offering the elixir of free silver. HOWARD KIMMEL.

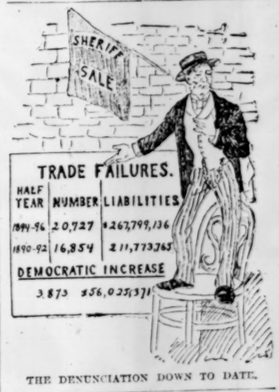
INDUSTRY OF THE SHERIFF.

An Idea of Democratic Prosperity That is Daily Occurring.

We denounce a policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the sheriff.—Democratic Platform of 1892.



THE DENUNCIATION DOWN TO DATE.

There were 271 failures of manufacturers, with liabilities of $7,568,940, as against 163 failures, with liabilities of only $2,866,517, in 1895. The largest failures this year have been in the lumber and woolen trades, both of which have suffered from Democracy's gift of free raw material.

What Agriculturists Want.

What the agriculturist of this country wants more than anything else, after he has gathered his crops, are consumers—consumers at home, men who do not produce what they eat, but must purchase all they consume; men who are engaged in manufacturing, in mining, in cotton spinning, in the potteries, and in the thousands of productive industries which command all their time and energy, and whose employments do not admit of their producing their own food. The American agriculturist further wants these consumers near and convenient to his field of supply. Cheap as inland transportation is, every mile saved is money made. Every manufacturing establishment in the United States, wherever situated, is of priceless value to the farmers of the country.—Hon. William McKinley.

True American Policy.

That is the truest American policy which shall most usefully employ American capital and American labor, the best sustain the whole population. With me it is a fundamental axiom, it is interwoven with all my opinions, that the great interests of the country are united and inseparable, that agriculture, commerce and manufactures will prosper together or languish together, and that all legislation is dangerous which proposes to benefit one of these without looking to consequences which may fall on the others. —Daniel Webster.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

The Green Mountain State has been heard from. At her election last week she fired a shot that reverberated throughout the Union. The farmers loaded the gun and the working men of the towns discharged it. It was an unexpected surprise to Bryan and it has caused consternation in the Democratic camp.

The vote was the largest ever cast in the State, and the Republican plurality is over 39,000, being three times times the Democratic vote cast at this election.

NOT UNCLE SAM'S DOLLARS.

The present silver dollars are as good as the guarantee of the government of the United States can make them. The honor of the Government is back of them, just as it is back of the gold dollar. This would not be true of the silver dollars issued under the proposed free coinage demanded by the Chicago platform. These would be the dollars of the individuals who took their bullion to the Mint and had it coined. They would belong to Tom, Dick and Harry until they unloaded them upon the public. The American people do not want that kind of money.

AN ODDS ON CANDIDATE.

Talking about "bugs," W. J. Bryan, the Chicago platform nominee for President and the St. Louis Populist nominee for President, is a straddle bug with two Vice Presidents running with him, each opposed to the other. It would hardly be fair to use the Siamese twin illustration on Bryan and say that he is the ligature, for he never can connect them. Bryan seems to be an odds on candidate—16 to 1 on silver; 2 to 1 on Vice Presidents, and a bigger odds than either on where he actually does stand, between the St. Louis Populist platform and the Chicago 16 to 1 platform.

The CAROLINIAN holds that gold, silver and paper should circulate at par—that neither should be driven from circulation. So far as silver is concerned, if McKinley is elected it will be retained in its place, as part of the money of the Nation, and all kinds of money will be of equal value and purchasing power in the hands of the American people.

Vermont farmers are greatly devoted to their business, but it seems that they do not mind knocking off a day now and then and going to 'lection. They'll do it again in November.

The Republican State Executive Committee meets at Raleigh to-day to take action in the Dockery case. The old man has made the mistake of his life.

There has never been in the history of this country a candidate for President who talked so much as William Jennings Bryan and said so little.

A prominent Democrat at Raleigh estimates the vote in this State to be: Republican, 136,000; Democrat, 135,000, and Populist, 60,000.

Reports from all sections of the central West indicate that the silver tide is receding.

Vermont may be a Green Mountain State, but she isn't a green political Commonwealth.

McKINLEY'S HAPPY SPEECHES.

In his short speeches to the numerous delegations visiting him, Major McKinley impresses all with his happy faculty of condensation and epigrammatic expression. He is clear and logical in statement, and he handles facts and figures well, but he is particularly happy in the art of hitting the nail on the head by new forms of expression. He scarcely ever makes a speech that does not afford an example of this. Thus in an address the other day, after referring to the connection between politics and business as exemplified by the operation of the Tariff, he said: "We have had some distressing experience in this direction which has taught us that if we do not keep our business our business will not keep us, and that if somebody else does our work we will have no work to do at home."

Now, this is commonplace enough in a way, and everybody has heard the adage, "If a man does not keep his shop his shop will not keep him," yet it is a striking application of an old argument. Again, in a speech to a visiting delegation of farmers, after referring to the increase of competition and the decrease in consumption, he said: "I do not know that we can decrease the number of your competitors, but with the adoption of a true American protective policy we can set your best customers to work." That is not only a happy expression, but a pointed and pregnant argument. His speeches abound with such expressions.

DOES NOT MEET EXPECTATION

"Cy" Watson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is disappointing his party. This disappointment is voiced by the Concord "Standard," a leading Democratic paper, in the following notice of one of Watson's speeches:

We have endeavored to give our readers a fair and impartial synopsis of the speech of our State standard bearer. It is needless to say that we are chagrined and disappointed that matters with which he will have to do as Governor of the State, are overlooked and National affairs, which he, as Governor Watson, will have no more to do than he, as Mr. Watson would have, are emphasized and that too with justice withheld and insinuations inflicted.

There is a manifest lack of interest and enthusiasm for his canvass and if joint discussion does not bring him well into the State arena, then whatever is done to save our State to save our State to Democracy must be done by others than Mr. Watson.

But State issues is what Mr. Watson is anxious to avoid. The Democratic record in North Carolina is so vulnerable that he deems it wise to ignore it.

As a Republican I am proud of many things, but I can sum up as the highest satisfaction I have had in the party and its career, that the prospect of Republican success never did disturb business.

Thus spoke Benjamin Harrison. He might have added, and have only been recalling history, that the attainment of Democratic success has always disturbed business, and thrice, at least, precipitated a disastrous panic.

Vermont, one of the most distinctively agricultural States in the Union, makes haste to assure the country that the American farmer is not the fool that Mr. Bryan would have the public believe. The trouble with Mr. Bryan is he has never acquired a speaking acquaintannce with the real sentiment of the American people.

One fact must not be lost sight of in this campaign. The party that nominated Bryan at Chicago is the same party which is responsible for the enactment of the present tariff bill and for the distress and disaster that has followed that legislation. It is the party of Free-Trade still. Remember that.

The longer and more thoughtfully the workingmen of the country turn over in their minds that advice of Major McKinley's about opening the Mills to labor rather than the Mints to silver, the more money they will see in it.

At the Indianopolis Democratic Convention last week Senator John M. Palmer, of Illinois, was nominated for President, and Gen. Simon B. Buckner, of Kentucky, for Vice President. Both able and strong men.

A successful business man has an annual surplus, not a deficit. So let us try an Administration and Congress that will do as well by the Nation.

The Vermont farmers never did a better day's farming than they performed on Tuesday, September 1, '95.

Two Lives Saved

Mrs Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida street, San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Alex. Wadsworth's Store.

The Victory In Vermont

PROCLAIMS THAT THE PRINCIPLES OF SOUND MONEY AND PROTECTION SHALL PREVAIL.

The Greatest Majority Ever Given a Candidate for Governor in That State.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5, 1896.

The phenomenal vote and the great Republican victory in Vermont has made everybody happy at the Republican National headquarters in this city.

This glorious triumph is not only an emphatic indorsement of McKinley and Hobart and the St. Louis platform, but is significant in the fact that it proclaims with no uncertain sound that the principles of sound money and protection shall prevail.

The figures of this election, the first gun fired in this great political battle, are astounding and exceed the most hopeful expectations of the Republican leaders.

Although a State election for State officers, the contest was fought on National issues, and was a battle royal between the supporters of sound money and the adherents of free silver.

The result is positive evidence that the farmers and workingmen of the Green Mountain State were not deceived by the delusive arguments of the free silver advocates, and not only has it buried out of sight forever in Vermont the popocratic candidate for Governor, Dr. J. Henry Jackson, but the Chicago platform and its candidate, William Jennings Bryan.

GREATEST MAJORITY EVER GIVEN.

This is the greatest majority ever given a Republican candidate for Governor in the State of Vermont, and shows phenomenal Republican gains and marked Democratic losses, especially in the rural districts.

The next Senate of Vermont will be solidly Republican, every one of the thirty members belonging to that party, and out of a membership of 245 in the House 200 will be Republicans. The Republicans owe this victory not only to a vigorous campaign, the most vigorous ever conducted in the State, but to the zealous support of many good sound money Democrats who placed patriotism, fealty and country above party.

THE LANDSLIDE COMMENCED.

But the splendid returns tell the story. Vermont has sent her greetings to her sister States in ringing words, and has beaten all her former records in war or peace.

The November landslide has commenced and the first shot fired in Vermont on September 2d has been heard around the world.

This, the first glorious victory for sound money, should inspire the supporters of McKinley and Hobart throughout the country with new life, and from this time on, with victory in the air, every voter who prefers a dollar worth 100 cents to a dollar worth 53 cents should buckle on his armor and work without ceasing until the polls close November 3.

McKINLEY TO FARMERS.

In an address to a delegation of farmers, among other things, Major McKinley said:

You cannot help the farmer by more coinage of silver; he can only be helped by more consumers of his products. You cannot help him by free trade, but he can be hurt, and seriously hurt, by the free introduction of competing products into this conntry. Better a thousands times enlarge the markets for American products than to enlarge the mints for the silver product of the world.

You might just as well understand now that you cannot add value to anything by diminishing the measure of the value with which the thing is sold or exchanged. If you can increase the value by lowering the measure of value, and you want to benefit the farmer, then make the bushel smaller, the pound lighter and declare a legal dozen less than twelve. The home market is the best friend of the farmer. It is his best market It is his only reliable market. It is his own natural market. He should be protected in its enjoyment by wise tariff legislation, and this home market should not be permitted so be distroyed by lessening the demand for American labor and diminishing the pay of American workmen and thereby diminishing the demand for agricultural products. The best consumers for the American farmer are those at home. They consume eighteen times as much of the products of the American farm as the foreign consumer. Their earning power has been cut off in the past two years so that it makes our home market less desirable. Prosperity of manufactures is inseparable from the prosperity of agriculture. Set all our wheels in motion, set all our spindles to whirling, set all our men at work on full time, start up the idle workshops of the country, bring back confidence and business, and the farmer will at once feel the advance, the greater demand for his products, and in the better prices he would receive. He wants to be protected by wise tariff legislation from the competion of the other side, and then he wants the mines and mills and factories of his own country humming with busy industry, employing well-paid workmen who can buy and consume his products. When he has got consumers he wants his pay for what he sells in such unquestionable coin that he will know it is good not only to-day, but will be certain to be good every day of the year and in all countries of the world. Free silver will not cure overproduction nor underconsumption. Free silver will not remove the competition of Russia, India and the Argentine Republic. This competion would remain if you coin all the silver in the world. Free silver will not increase the demand for your wheat or make a single consumer. You don't get consumers through the mints. You get them through the factories.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 4, 1896.

Republican confidence has never wavered in the triumphant election of McKinley and Hobart, the maintenance of the public credit and of our Constitutional legal tribunals, and the restoration of the prosperity of our country. Every week since the Republican National Convention met has added materially to the strength of that confidence. The principal event, of course, in the current week was the unprecedent Republican majority in Vermont—an emphatic and convincing answer to the claims of the democrats that sentiment in favor of the free and independent coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 was increasing among the farmers and workingmen of the Eastern and Middle States. It is probable that a larger percentage of the voting population of Vermont can properly be classed as workingmen and farmers than of any other State in the East. Look at the vote, and try to discover the alleged silver sentiment. The campaign in the State was fought entirely on National lines, the Republicans standing squarely upon the St. Louis platform and the Democrats upon the Chicago platform, and the Republicans received the largest majority ever given in a State election, and the largest since the war in any election. Secretary Mercer, of the Republican Congressional Committee, says of this great result: "It means that the conservative people of this country propose to turn out in their strength at every polling precinct of the land and register a ballot for sound money, national prosperity and good government. I take the increased vote of Vermont as an indication that the vote to be cast next November will be one of the largest ever polled in this country, and I believe the victory for sound money will be in just about the same proportion as the Republican victory in Vermont."

Practical Republicans are not allowing themselves to count upon any electoral votes for McKinley and Hobart, but it is daily becoming more evident that the Democrats will have a hard task to carry a number of Southern States. They admit themselves that Maryland, Kentucky and West Virginia may go Republican, and they are getting alarmed over Virginia, Alabama and Louisiana. Col. J. A. Kemple, who has been stumping in Virginia, said: "The sound money element is very strong in Virginia. The sound money Democrats will exert every effort to influence the farmers, who at this time are the most misguided class of citizens whom I found in Virginia. My impression now is that the chances are more than even that the electoral vote of Virginia will be given to McKinley and Hobart." Hon. Taylor Beattie, of Louisiana, who is a Republican candidate for Congress, said: "If the vote were fairly counted, I feel sure that McKinley would get the State, but no doubt the same tactics which counted out Pharr in the gubernatorial race will be employed, so as to throw the electoral vote to Bryan."

The Democrats, Populists and Silverites are in a bad way, and each is already beginning to blame the other for the overwhelming defeat which is casting its black shadow over them in advance. The several National Committees are also in deep financial distress, and Chairman Jones has been asked to come to Washington to see if some way of raising money cannot be devised. The millionaire silver miners have read the signs of defeat and have refused to contribute to a losing campaign, and the appeal of Chairman Jones for small contributions from the people has not been productive of cash enough to run the machine, and the credit of the Democratic National Committee, which it seems is expected to toot all the bills, is strained to the breaking point. According to current gossip, the most of the money which this committee has had came from Treasurer St. John, who did not contribute the money but advanced it with the understanding that he should be reimbursed from the contributions which were expected from the silver mine owners and from Mr. John R. McLean, and both of these have refused to put up any more of their money.

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, was in Washington this week. He says that McKinley will certainly carry Wyoming, Nebraska and South Dakota as well as three or four of the Pacific coast States.

FOR McKINLEY, TWO TO ONE.

Result of a Poll of Nebraska Farmers at The State Fair in Omaha.

The following letter has been received by W. H. Ream, of the law firm of Theall & Beam, in the United States Trust Company building:

Charles E. Bates, Room 606,
Bee Building,
Omaha, Neb. Sept. 2, 1896.

W. H. Beam, esq., New York City.

My Dear Sir: We have the Nebraska State Fair now in session here, and the incoming trains arriving over the different roads have been polled every day this week on the Presidential question, with the result that McKinley gets two votes to Bryan's one, and this to me seems significant, for this is an Agricultural State Fair, and, of course, the attendants are farmers, or, at least, largely so, and the railroads are giving a $5 round trip rate from all stations in Nebraska, and "everybody and the hired man" are here. Put your money on McKinley for 20,000 majority in Nebraska, and you will be safe to take even bets on Bryan's home city, Lincoln, going against him. He is losing every day, and by November will not be in it. Respectfully,

CHARLES E. BATES.

Just now everybody is beginning to take a Spring Medicine. And it is a good thing to do provided you take Simmons Liver Regulator, the best Spring Medicine. It's a sluggish liver that clogs the system and makes bad blood. A dose a day of Simmons Liver Regulator makes a new man out of you, and a new woman too. Look out for the red Z on the package. It is Simmons Liver Regulator you want.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Priye 50c and $1 per bottle at Alex. Wadsworth's Drug store.

Saved the Babies.

Mr. J. T. McAllister, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "Last June Germetuer saved our baby, Paul, carried him safely through an extremely bad case of dysentery and teething, and from a mere skeleton of skin and bones, it has made him a great big solid chunk of of thirty-five pounds."

FAT AS A PIG. J. J. Scruggs, of Sidon, Miss., says: "Our little girl, 9 months old, was in a very low state from summer complaint and Germetuer made her fat as a pig."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

IS YOUR NERVE GONE?

Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets Will Restore Nerves, Brain, Blood and Muscles to Health and Vigor.

The Kola nut has been used for centuries by Africans as a renewer of the tissue and relief of fatigue.

Dr. Charcot, the eminent authority on nervous diseases, prepared a prescription from it and he vouched for as a tone specific in all nervous cases and a sure invigorator for the blood.

Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets are prepared upon the above mentioned prescription from the fresh nuts especially imported from Western Africa.

Kola is not a cure-all. It is a food for nerves, brain and muscles and a tonic for the blood.

Kola Nervine Tablets are absolutely certain and speedy in their effects. They cure all nervous diseases, prevent fatigue, renew failing vitality and tone to the whole system.

Kola Nervine Tablets cures sleeplessness and all the nervous troubles from which women suffer so many times. They are specific in cases of dyspepsia.

The druggists say the demand for the Tablets is astonishing. Kola is what the debilitated need.

Thousands of packages have been sold and the effects were felt at once.

Hundreds of letters say: "One package of Kola Tablets, costing $1.00, has done for me what doctors, who cost me $100, failed to do."

We absolutely guarantee that the first or secondary effects are felt from the use of Kola Tablets.

Can you, in justice to yourself, refuse a trial, a day for sure relief from neuralgia, headache, brain fatigue, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of vigor, melancholia and all the ills resulting from a nervous condition? Ask your druggist the question with all seriousness.

Dr. A. C. Sherwin is one of the best physicians in New England. He writes:

"Hotel Pelham, Boston, Dec. 6th, 1895. Gentlemen: I am prescribing Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets for Nervousness, Insomnia, Headache and Neuralgia, with excellent results. I have no hesitation in stating that they are invaluable in all forms of nervous diseases. Their nerve restoring properties are wonderful.

Yours truly, A. C. Sherwin, M. D."

Edward Everett Hale, D. D., the famous author of "The Man Without a Country," in one of his sermons in the Boston Commonwealth, and later in a personal letter, wrote thus:

"I am assured by a careful inquiry among the leading physicians and personal friends of those who used them and in whom I have the most confidence, that Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets are invaluable in insomnia and all nervous troubles."

Edw. E. Hale.

Fifty Cents and $1.00 per box (one to two months treatment). See Dr. Charcot's name on the genuine booklet free. All druggists or sent direct, postpaid, by Chemical & Manufacturing Company, Lancaster, Wis., and Boston, Mass.

The North Carolinian.

Wednesday, September 9, 1896.

☞Get together.

☞Combine against the enemy.

☞Judge Timberlake is holding Court at Currituck this week.

☞The steamer "Newberne" has been taken to New York for some new machinery.

☞The Republicans of Currituck will hold their County Convention on the 26th inst.

☞It is reported that the "Sanctified Army," driven from Chowan, have returned to the neighborhood of Shiloh, in Camden.

☞The postoffice at Fauna, on the Rosedale route, this county, has been discontinued. Mail hereafter to be sent to Mumford.

☞Fashion has decreed that the tooth pick-pointed shoe now worn by men shall go. Thus, one by one, the freaks of style depart. Reform is doing some wholesome work this year.

☞The Republicrns of Washington county have made the following nommations; For Representative, L. N. C. Spruill; Sheriff, L. A. Gray; Register of Deeds, W. H. Stubb; Treasurer, T. J. Basnight.

☞At the late Populist Convention of Pitt Col. Harry Skinner made a motion for fusion with the Republicans and made an able speech in its support. It was adopted by a vote of 95 to 6

☞Rev Dr Solomon Pool was stricken with paralysis at the close of an able sermon in the Methodist Church at South Mills on Wednesday night. He remained unconscious for several days. The latest reports are favorable.

☞At the Hyde County Populist Convention held on the 2nd inst, J. G. Harris was renominated for Representative, and W. T. Berry was nominated for Sheriff, L. H. Swindell for Register and C. Benson for Treasurer.

☞On Wednesday night last, Mr Constant Fearing, of this City, was united in wedlock to Miss Leonora Bellanga, of Coinjock. The ceremony was performed in the M. E. Church at the latter place. The CAROLINIAN extends congratulations and tenders best wishes.

☞The Populists of Currituck held their County Convention on the 3rd inst, and nominated the following ticket: For Representative, P. L. Northern; Sheriff, Alma B. Midgett; Treasurer, Noah W. Gregory; Register of Deeds, John M. Bell; Commissioners, Edward Baum, Alex. T. Garrett and John Litchfield.

☞A singular case is reported from Chowan. Mr. Jacob Asbell, residing near Edenton, who had been sick for some time, complained that he felt something "biting" him in his stomach. An emetic was administered and during its operation he threw up a scorpion measuring five and a half inches in length! It is supposed that he drank it in water when it was not large enough to be noticed.

☞Reader, have you thought of it, that prosperity depends on the buying power of the American people. They cannot buy of the butcher, the baker and the candle-stick maker unless they have the money to buy with. They cannot get money without working for it. Therefore legislation that will give our industries a chance to thrive will furnish work to the uuem ployed, and once more every avenue of trade will be quickened.

☞Miss Bettie F. Pool will open a class in Shorthand, at her residence on Dyer street, on September 21st. The system she has been teaching is a most excellent one, and has given entire satisfaction to all her pupils. She claims that the entire system can be learned and a speed of one hundred words per minute acquired in from four to six months by any pupil of ordinary intelligence. She also claims that none of her pupils have ever abandoned the study from inability to master it. See Miss Pool's advertisement.

☞To a commuuication from a Republican from Beaufort county—one whom we have kuown for a quarter of a century and have ever held in high personal esteem—we reply that, knowing as we do the sentiment of the mass of the Republicans and Populists of the District, which, we have reason to believe very largely prevails thoughout the State, it is, in our judgment, impolitic to urge the plan suggestion indicated. The outlook is brightening; Russell and McKinley will both have a plurality in the State, and fusion in the counties and districts will defeat Democratic control of the Legislature.

——Dr. D. H. Abbott, of Vandermere, Pamlico county, is Chairman of the Republican Congressional Executive Committee of this District, and Hon. Theo. White, of Hertford, Perquimans county, is Chairman of the Populist Committee.

☞Court at Camden next week.

☞Monday was National Labor Day.

☞Now is the time to circulate the CAROLINIAN.

☞See Fowler & Co.'s Counterpanes and Blankets before buying.

☞"Sixteen to one"—sixteen men out of work to one who has it.

☞Young ladies can plume themselves on the styles of Weisel's Millinery.

☞THE BEST AND THE EASIEST way to save money and provide for your Family, is to insure in the State Mutual of Massachusetts. Apply to T. T. Whitcomb, Agent,

☞A motion that the sidewalk debaters have leave to print their remarks would carry by a large majority.

☞A $1 kid glove for 75c, and a $1.25 kid gloye for $1 at Moses Weisel's

☞To keep up with the newest 1896 styles it is necessary to trade at Moses Weisel's.

☞For Twenty Cents, in advance, the CAROLINIAN will be sent to any address during the campaign.

☞Hundreds of nice quality of Summer Coats and Vests at less than half price at Fowler & Co's.

☞Is your wall faded or discolored? If it is, go to THE FAIR and get some of the Wall Paper they are selling so cheap.

☞An obstinate man does not hold opinions, but they hold him; for when he is once possessed with an error, it is like a devil, only cast out with great difficulty.

☞We have taken the agency for fine Clothing made to order by Wanamaker & Brown, Philadelphia. A fit guaranteed. The styles are correct and prices reasonable.

☞When a farmer has a theory it indicates that he is a thinker and is willing to advance in his system of farming. It is right to test all theories, but it should be done in a limited manner.

☞See the new style in Trimmings, and the handsome line of Buttons at Moses Weisel's.

☞The Republican State Executive Committee is now prepared to furnish to Republican Clubs, literature of all kinds pertaining to the campaign. Send to A. E. Holton, Chairman, Raleigh, the names and Postofflce address of the Chairman and Secretary of the Clubs as fast as organized.

☞Great Fargains in Summer Coats and Vests at Fowler & Co's. They bought a big lot on June 5th 30 per ct on the dollar and will retail the whole lot for less than half price.

☞To "A Voter" the CAROLINIAN has this to say: Prosperity of our industries and commerce means the rapid circulation of money, and the faster money exchanges the better it is for all. A dollar that passes from man to man a dozen in one day, in making payments or exchanges, does more good to the country than a thousand dollars lying idle in a safe.

☞A thoroughly up-to-date line of Dress Goods at Moses Weisel's—everything that Fashion or good taste can call for.

☞An intelligent and observant Republican, residing in the State of New York, writes the CAROLINIAN that Bryan has not made any votes for himself by his stumping tour of that State. He says:

The crowds that rushed to see, rather than hear Mr. Bryan were gathered more by curiosity than anything else. The farmers said, as the trains pulled out: "Good bye, Bryan; we'll never see you again," and then they laughed and went home.

LOCAL MENTION.

The sun rose this morning at 5:37 and will set to-night at 7:16.—We can now begin to royster with the oyster.—Mr. Frank E. T. Whitcomb on North Martin street. They will get points in matters of comfort and convenience that will be valuable.—The Rhynster thus speaks of the Republican platform:

We have hitched a team together, boys,
That makes the farmers glad,
That cheers the hearts of laborers,
long sorrowful and sad,
That points the manufacturer to coming prosperous days,
When free trade will be buried beneath the Democratic craze.

CURES.... SUMMER DISEASES

The Ideal Remedy for all diseases of the stomach and bowels, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Cramps, Loss of Appetite, etc., is that standard of all medicines,

DR. KING'S

ROYAL GERMETUER.

Thousands of Certificates attest the fact.

Mr. L. T. Collier, Kosciusko, Miss., says: "My bowels would act from ten to twenty times a day, of a bloody, mucus nature. My kidneys were very badly out of order. I was treated by the best physicians, and they said I could live but a short while. I then commenced using Royal Germetuer. In three weeks I could eat anything, and do as much work as ever. I continued the Germetuer, and can testify that I am entirely cured, and that Germetuer did the work."

The Kneipp Cure.

Among the very latest of the nineteenth century fads is the Kneipp cure. It consists in walking barefooted on wet grass. It is absolutely necessary that the grass shall be wet artificially or otherwise. Dew is preferred, but if you cannot get dew why hydrant water will do. Hundreds of people are trying it for all manner of diseases and the result is said to be good.

We are not in a position to pass an opinion on the Kneipp cure. We can not say whether it is a specific for any sort of disease or not; but we do remember when we were a small boy of being yanked out of bed at 4 o'clock in the morning and compelled to take the Kneipp cure for half to three-quarters of an hour while we drove the cows to pasture, a couple of miles away, whether we wanted to or not. The moisture on the grass was real dew too, unless it happened to be real frost. That we were receiving a blessing in disguise we were not aware, but we well remember how, from the time we tumbled out of bed until we got back to breakfast, we cussed the old man and considered him a brute.

But now it is different. Now our nerves are unstrung and we would be glad to get up in the morning and go barefooted out on the grass no matter how cool it might be. We don't know whether it would cure our nervousness or not, but if the records of all the hypochondriacs that are now trying the Kneipp cure are to be believed it would help us some, and we know we would enjoy it.

In connection with the Kneipp cure therefore we have one suggestion to make, and that is the people who insist on trying it, try it under circumstances like those surrounding us in our boyhood. We will guarantee that if they will keep this up for a couple of weeks, late in the season, for at least an hour or two every morning they will entirely forget any other trouble they may have.—St. Louis Star-Sayings.

Hypnotized the Birds.

A friend of Hamilton Gibson, whose recent untimely death is so great a calamity to the world of art and letters, says that the artist had a singularly powerful magnetic attraction for birds and other small wood dwellers. He mentions particularly one warm, still day, when he stood patiently at his camera taking such glimpses of water through the trees and bits of woodland as Mr. Gibson suggested, when the latter suddenly lifted his arms high above his head, pressing both wrists together and forming a vicelike hollow with his hands, into which quickly fluttered down from a tree a little bird. Mr. Gibson softly drew his hands down his face and made caressing sounds to the little prisoner, who showed no terror.—San Francisco Chronicle.

An Eagle's Bucklings.

At a meeting of the British Ornithologists' Club, held some time ago, H. M. Wallis exhibited three eggs of a golden eagle which had been about thirty years in confinement and began laying eggs about fifteen years ago. The eggs were taken and those of a domestic duck substituted. The eagle hatched three of the latter and reared three fine birds, feeding them principally on rats.

HESITATE NO LONGER.

Modesty in women is natural. It is one of women's chief charms.

No one cares for one who really lacks this essential to womanliness.

Women have suffered fearfully because of over-sensitiveness in this direction. They couldn't say to the physician what they ought to say to someone. Mrs. Pinkham has received the confidence of thousands. Women open their hearts to her. She understands their suffering, and has the power to relieve and cure.

In nearly all cases the source of women's suffering is in the womb. In many cases the male physician does not understand the case and treats the patient for consumption—indigestion—anything but the right thing.

It is under such circumstances that thousands of women have turned to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and opened their heart and lives—woman to woman—and received her help.

You ask how she can tell if the doctor cannot? Because no man living ever treated so many cases and possesses such vast experience.

Displacement, inflammation, torpid action, stagnation, sends to all parts of the body the pains that crush you.

Lydia E. Pinkham's "Vegetable Compound" is the sure cure for this trouble. For twenty years it has done its grand work and cured thousands.

LI HUNG CHANG A GUEST

China's Great Viceroy Royally Welcomed to Our Shores.

ENTRY LIKE A TRIUMPHAL MARCH

Received at the Gateway to the United States With Naval and Military Honors---His First View of a Land of Liberty---Escorted by Cavalry and Cheered by Thousands in New York City Streets

NEW YORK CITY, August 29.—Li Hung Chang, the greatest Chinese statesman of this age and greater than any of all ages probably since Confucius; one of General Grant's four great men of the world—the others being Gambetta, Bismarck and Beaconsfield—arrived in New York yesterday, and became the guest of the Nation. He was a passenger on the steamship St. Louis, of the American Line, which came into port, having made a quick passage from Southampton.

LI HUNG CHANG, CHINA'S GREATEST MAN.

The distinguished visitor is the greatest foreigner and the most powerful ruler that has ever visited the United States, and his list of titles includes, besides that of Viceroy, or Chung Tang, Prime Minister of China, Minister of foreign affairs, Senior Guardian of the Empire, Earl of the First Class of the Order of Suh Gni, and Commander of the Northern Army. He is a soldier, statesman, financier and diplomat, and is returning to China from a mission to Russia, where he attended the coronation of the Czar as Ambassador Extraordinary.

The Chinese Viceroy was met down the bay by General Thomas Ruger, of the United States Army, as the personal representative of the Government of this country and of President Cleveland. With General Ruger was the Chinese Minister at Washington.

Besides the United States dispatch boat Dolphin scores upon scores of steamboats, ferryboats, steam yachts and other craft of all sorts and descriptions met the St. Louis down the bay, and there was a great din as the proud Yankee ship, with her famous visitor on board, passed through the Narrows up to Quarantine.

After General Ruger had welcomed Li in the name of the President, the Ambassador from China thanked him and kept up a continuous talk with him and with others on board until the pier was reached.

To the north of Quarantine station ten of our finest warships were drawn up in double column, and as the St. Louis came abreast of the flagship the yellow dragon shot up and the cruiser New York fired a salute of nineteen guns. The other boats did not salute, nor did they hoist the colors of China.

Followed by the fleet of small craft, the St. Louis reached her pier about 2 o'clock p. m. An enormous crowd was on the dock. A guard of honor from the Naval Reserve was on the pier, as were some scores of Chinese merchants.

Li was escorted ashore and then carriages were taken to proceed to the Waldorf Hotel, where rooms had been reserved for Li and his party of thirty-eight attendants and attaches.

United States cavalry led the carriages down West street to Bowling Green, then up Broadway, past the City Hall, where for the first time the Chinese flag was flying above the Stars and Stripes, and so on uptown. The streets were packed with an enthusiastic crowd that cheered the guest of the Nation to the echo.

Li spent the night at the Waldorf, retiring early in order to rest for the next day's programme which included a reception by President Cleveland at the home of ex-Secretary William C. Whitney, at Fifth avenue and Fifty-seventh street, and in the evening a dinner at the Waldorf by former American diplomatic representatives in China.

Hundreds of Chinamen were around the American Line's pier when Li Hung landed and "Chinatown" was en fete all during his visit.

Li Hung Chang is attended by a Viscount Counselor, a First Secretary, a Viscount Secretary, three plain, simple Secretaries, seven attaches, two copyists, nine guards, and twelve servants.

Prominent People.

The late Sir John Pender, the Atlantic cable promoter, left $1,740,000 of personal property, all to his family.

Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, is a poor man, and it is said if he were to die now his estate would not amount to more than $2000.

Sir Edward Clarke's retainer on receiving the Jameson brief was $2500, while every day he had a "refresher" of $500.

Queen Victoria never rises till 8 o'clock.

Herr Lothair von Faber, of Nuremberg, Germany, who recently died, left $500,000 for the purpose of beautifying the city.

Dr. Chauncey Ayer, of Stamford, Conn., is the oldest living graduate of the Yale medical school. He was a member of the class of 1831, and was born in 1808.

Yukichi Fukuzaiwa, the "grand old man" of Japan, visited this country about thirty-five years ago. When he returned home he introduced Webster's dictionary into Japan, and was one of those who introduced the study of English into the Japanese schools. He is the proprietor of the "Jiji Shimpo" (Japanese Times), but he has retired from the active management of it.

One of the best-known Japanese journalists is K Tamaki, editor of the Asahi Shimbun of Osaka, which has a daily circulation of 160,000. He has been secured as Japanese correspondent of the new Chinese newspaper at Pekin, the Kuan-Shu-Tchu.

William A. Clark, who is known as the Silver King of Montana, and who is reputed to be worth $20,000,000, is about to erect a mausoleum in Woodlawn Cemetery, near New York City, in memory of his wife, who died about two years ago. The memorial is to cost $100,000.

Prince Bismarck now is doctor of every university faculty, Jena having just made him a doctor of medicine. He was already doctor of philosophy of Haily, doctor of laws of Gottengen and Erlangen, doctor of political science of Tubingen, and doctor of theology of Giessen.

The late Sir John Millais was so fond of having children as models that should he see an unusually pretty little face he would go out of his way to obtain a sketch of it.

Americus Symmes, eighty-five years old, died recently in Louisville, Ky. He was the son of John Cleves Symmes, who was an Arctic explorer, and maintained that the earth was hollow, and the entrance to the interior could be found at the poles.

Dr. John Wesley Gadsden, who has just died in Philadelphia, was known as one of the most skillful veterinary surgeons in the United States. He proved that pleuro-pneumonia was contagious. He was appointed Veterinary Inspector by the Department of Agriculture, and was an Examiner in the Veterinary College in Montreal for several years.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS.

They Hold a Brief State Convention at Trenton.

The New Jersey Republican State Convention was in session at Trenton just two hours, and finished its business at one session. During the morning the delegates from the Congress districts held conferences and agreed upon the candidates for electors.

Franklin Murphy, Chairman of the State Committee, called the convention together at noon and named Governor Griggs for Temporary Chairman and John Y. Foster, of Essex; J. Herbert Potts, of Hudson; Alex. C. Yard, of Mercer; James Parker, of Passaic, and Augustus S. Barber, of Gloucester, for Temporary Secretaries. Subsequently these officers were made permanent.

Governor Griggs received a cordial greeting when he was introduced to preside. His speech in reply aroused great enthusiasm. A platform was adopted which endorses that of the Republican National Convention.

John F. Dryden and Samuel H. Grey were chosen as delegates-at-large by acclamation, and the following district electors were chosen: First, Thomas W. Trenchard, of Cumberland; Second, Colonel Washington A. Roebling, of Mercer; Third, Adolph Mack, Somerset; Fourth, Alfred B. Whitney, Morris; Fifth, J. Hull Browning, Bergen; Sixth, James T. Ball, Essex; Seventh, George F. Perkins, Hudson; Eighth, Ernest R. Ackerman, Union.

BOMBARDED THE PALACE.

The British Warships Destroy the Sultan's Home in Zanzibar.

The British Foreign Office at London received dispatches from Zanzibar stating that the usurping Sultan, Said Khalid, having refused to surrender in accordance with the terms of the British Consul's ultimatum, the decks of the English warships in the harbor were cleared for action, and, at a signal from the flagship St. George, the third-class cruiser Racoon and the gunboats Thrush and Sparrow opened fire upon the palace.

The bombardment lasted fifty minutes, when the palace and the old Custom House were a mass of blazing ruins. The steamer Glasgow, which was owned by the late Sultan and carried a number of guns, was sunk by shells from the warships.

After the order to cease firing had been signaled a storming party of bluejackets and marines advanced upon the barricades round the palace, which were defended with great energy by the followers of Said Khalid, who kept up a steady fire.

The British carried the positions with a rush, but the usurper and his leading adherents made their escape and took refuge in the German consulate.

The loss of Said Khalid's force was heavy. The only casualty on the British side was the serious injuring of one seaman. No material damage was sustained by the British war vessels.

Sailors and marines brought in the prisoners and collected the dead for burial. Hamoud, a cousin of the late Sultan, has been proclaimed successor to the Sultanate.

Most of the rebels stood to their guns pluckily and fought well, though, after the first broadside was fired from the warships a number of the defenders of the palace fled to the outskirts of the town, where many robberies were committed.

Several Indian soldiers were killed during the firing. The Thrush was hit sixty-two times, and the Racoon sixteen times by shots from the guns of the rebels.

SWIFTEST OF HER CLASS.

The Cruiser Brooklyn Averages 21.92 Knots and Can Do Better.

The United States cruiser Brooklyn proved herself to be the greatest naval vessel of her class and the fastest armored vessel in the world by covering eighty-three knots off the New England coast at an average speed of 21.92 knots an hour. She also showed that she is capable of still greater speed by maintaining an average of 22.9 knots during a portion of the run. By her performance she earns for her builders, the Messrs. Cramp, of Philadelphia, a premium of at least $350,000.

The vessel behaved grandly. The vibration was scarcely felt by those on board at any time during the entire run, although the engines were worked to their highest tension throughout.

severing all his business relations in St Louis, as far as practicable. The Francis family will shortly remove to Washington to remain during the new Secretary's administration. Mrs. Francis is at present at Jamestown, R. I., a celebrated watering place.

PREHISTORIC RELICS.

Giant Skeletons and Implements Found in a Pennsylvania Mound.

Mound builders' work of great value is being uncovered at McKee's Rocks, Penn. Thomas Harper, who is superintending the work, believes that the specimens found recently are not less than 1000 years old, and proves that they were made by the most ancient people that inhabited this country. Bone awls or needles were included in the find, and Mr. Harper says they can partially be restored. A tomahawk, which he regards as not being less than ten centuries old, was also found. The same kind of weapons are found in the British Isles. Mr. Harper says the weapon is similar in appearance to the naiolth, which was used for striking. It is made of gneiss. It is considered an extraordinary discovery.

The bone implement, or flaher, is regarded by Mr. Harper as possessing unusual interest. This is the implement with which primitive men, as well as ancient people, made flint instruments. Mr. Harper maintains that this last find proves that the mound was built by mound builders.

The specimens will be placed in the Carnegie Museum, in Pittsburg. Since this mound was opened, a month ago, sixteen skeletons have been found, many of them being of gigantic size.

Blown Away by a Cyclone.

An old man, one of the nine persons in Peter Peterson's house near Grafton, N. D., when a cyclone came down on it, tried to hold the door from blowing in, and the next moment found himself, still clinging to the door, forty feet away in the field.

TWELVE MEN BLOWN TO ATOMS.

Explosion at the California Powder Company's Works.

By an explosion in the drying house of the California Powder Company at Hercules Station, Cal., four white men and eight Chinamen were blown to atoms. A number of white men were reported missing. Fifteen Chinamen were more or less seriously injured.

The explosion set fire to the little town of Rodor and great damage was done. The nitro-glycerine plant of the powder company, valued at $50,000, was totally destroyed.

After the first explosion burning acid communicated flames to the neighboring buildings of the powder works, which were destroyed excepting the packing house. The total loss to the company will reach $200,000.

A second series of minor explosions occurred later in the evening, and a few workmen were slightly injured by flying debris.

THE CUBAN INSURRECTION.

A Town in Matanzas Almost Destroyed by the Rebels.

A despatch from Matanzas, capital of the province of that name in Cuba, says that the town of Bolondron, in that province, was attacked at eleven o'clock at night by bands of insurgents under Domingues, Inglesito, Dantin and Valdes. The enemy destroyed the place almost completely, plundering and burning the stores, thirty-two houses, and nineteen huts, and killing three persons. After occupying Bolondron for four hours, the insurgents retreated at three o'clock in the morning, leaving two men killed behind them. Three of the garrison were wounded in defending the town.

A Month's Coinage at the Mints.

The monthly statement of the Director of the Mint shows the total coinage during August to have been $6,068,220, of which $3,315,000 was gold, $2,686,000 silver, and $67,220 minor coins. Of the silver coined, $2,650,000 were standard dollars.

The Treasury Deficit.

Government receipts during August, in round numbers, were $25,500,000 and the expenditures $33,000,000, making the deficit for the month $10,500,000. For the fiscal year the receipts have been $54,591,000, and the expenditures $78,091,000, making the deficit for the year to date $23,439,000.

Cycling Notes.

Boston is to have a coasting contest.

The Salvation Army in England uses bicycles to some extent.

President Kruger, of the Transvaal Republic, now rides a bicycle.

The charge for carrying a bicycle to Europe and return is $7, and it must be crated.

Bicycles checked free at the opera house is the odd news that comes from Burlington, Vt.

An English Justice of the Peace has been fined for riding a bicycle at night without a lighted lamp.

A hotel at Nice, France, advertises a special race track for the exclusive use of its cycling patrons.

Bicycles have reached the Arizona Indians, and people of Phoenix recently noted a Pima riding his wheel along the Tempe road.

A firm of New Yorkers and Brooklynites which proposes to manufacture leather tires, has been incorporated with $100,000 capital.

At Woodgreen, England, Ilsley, the bicyclist, rode 151 miles, seventy yards in six hours. This establishes a new record for the distance.

The New York Central Railroad Company has issued orders to all section foremen to restrain cyclists from riding between the tracks. Complaint is made that cyclists on railroad property are becoming so numerous as to interfere with construction work.

FIVE THOUSAND KILLED.

Details of the Turkish Massacre of Armenians in Constantinople.

MORE MURDERS ARE FEARED.

Women and Children Slaughtered---British Government Orders a Powerful Fleet to the Levant---Fourteen Big Vessels of War---An American Cruiser Also Ordered to Turkey by Our Navy.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 4.—A number of the shops and bazaars were opened during yesterday for the first time since the attack by Armenians upon the Ottoman Bank. No disturbances occurred, but the populace evidently fears a repetition of the scenes of last week. The arrests of suspected Armenians continue.

Additional facts concerning the recent massacres are coming to light. It is now estimated that 5000 persons perished, and that scarcely a male Armenian escaped in the Hassim Pasha and Haskoi quarters. Forty-five women and children sought refuge on the roof of a house, where they were discovered, slaughtered, and their bodies thrown into the street.

The Turkish officials are continuing the work of clearing the khans of the Armenians who have been hid den there, and the foreign consuls are supervising this work to see that the conditions prescribed by the representatives of the Powers are carried out. These conditions provide that the consuls must consent to the entry of the houses, but no Armenians can be arrested without the consent of the consuls, and all arms and explosives will be handed over to the Government.

This search of the houses of foreigners is irritating, but it is considered necessary if the return to anarchy is to be prevented. In many cases flags are floating over the khans, and the soldiers are in constant fear of having bombs thrown at them if they invade foreign property.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., September 3.—The cruiser Bancroft, Lieutenant-Commander Bullnap commanding, has left the Naval Academy for New York, where the vessel will be fitted out for an expedition to Turkey. The detail of officers will be completed after the cruiser has reached New York.

HIS FAMILY ON A WHEEL.

A New Jersey Man is Traveling to Minnesota in an Unusual Manner.

Henry Norton, a painter who has lived in Camden, N. J., for several years is now on his way to Albert Lea, Minn., on a bicycle, over the rear wheel of which he constructed a platform and above this he placed a tent. The platform is large enough to afford space for his wife and two children as well as a few cooking utensils. Thus equipped he expects to make one hundred miles a day, and he does not think that the trip will cost him more than $100.

Norton is a painter and has been out of work for some time. A brother who lives in Minnesota promised him work if he would go out there. He had no money to pay railroad fare and was wondering what he was to do when he saw a bicycle parade and that gave him the idea for his tent on a wheel. He immediately set to work and constructed his raft and a few days ago started on his journey.

Pistols and Pestles.

The duelling pistol now occupies its proper place, in the museum of the collector of relics of barbarism. The pistol ought to have beside it the pestle that turned out pills like bullets, to be shot like bullets at the target of the liver. But the pestle is still in evidence, and will be, probably, until everybody has tested the virtue of Ayer's sugar coated pills. They treat the liver as a friend, not as an enemy. Instead of driving it, they coax it. They are compounded on the theory that the liver does its work thoroughly and faithfully under obstructing conditions, and if the obstructions are removed, the liver will do its daily duty. When your liver wants help, get "the pill that will."

Gathering the Lemon Crop.

There is no season in California for gathering lemons, as is the case with all other fruits grown in this country. For that reason a grower saves money in his harvest, because with the help of one person he can easily gather and take care of all the fruit grown in a grove of ten or fifteen acres. The times when most lemons are picked are early in January, early in February and again in March; but all well-cultivated trees have fruit ready for picking during ten months of the year. For that reason the lemon is an uncommonly steady and prolific bearer.

Lemons are picked when the fruit begins to show the least tinge of yellow. The grower and an assistant go carefully over each of the trees in the grove, and gather all the lemons that have reached that stage of development. The fruit is cut from the branches and laid in padded baskets or bags, so as to avoid any bruises or blemishes. The best growers are careful to gather only fruit of one size; for instance, all that will just pass through a two-and-a-quarter-inch ring. From the grove the lemons are taken to the curing-house. If the grower is a man of means, and grows lemons at all extensively, he may have his own curing and packing establishment, but generally in Southern California a half dozen or so growers build cooperative houses of this kind convenient to all of their properties.—New York Tribune.
